H 009324
000
BRISBANE CITY COUNCIL
16 INDUSTRIAL AVE
WACOL QLD 4076

For more information, go to: www.sdرو.nsw.gov.au

Camera detected company fines are 5 times higher than individual amounts. Once a driver is nominated the fine will reduce.

9 out of 10 companies nominate the driver before the deadline. If you don't nominate the driver in time, you will have to pay the full penalty amount of $580.00 and face further action.

What should I do now?

Name the driver who committed the offence detailed below by completing the statutory declaration. If you name the driver, do not send payment as a new penalty notice for $116.00 will be issued to the nominated driver. False nomination is a serious offence. You can view other ways to finalise this notice over the page.

Details of the offence:

This camera recorded offence was detected by an appropriate approved traffic enforcement device (within the meaning of the Road Transport Act 2013).

Offence: Motor vehicle exceed speed limit - 10 km/h and under - Camera recorded - Corporation

Vehicle registration: [REDACTED]

Speed travelled: 61 km/h

Location: [REDACTED]

Speed limit: 50 km/h

Direction of travel: Northerly

Offence date: 02 October 2017

The offence carries 2 demerit points. Learner and provisional licence holders may incur additional demerit points. For more information relating to demerit points, go to www.rms.nsw.gov.au

Offence time: 02:19PM

View camera images and offence details

To view camera images, go to www.sdرو.nsw.gov.au

What will happen if I do not nominate the driver by the due date?

You will receive a separate penalty notice for the offence of failing to nominate. This carries a penalty of more than $1300 for a first offence and over $3000 for a second or subsequent offence. Courts may issue fines up to $11 000.

Other ways to finalise this notice

What if I have already sold the vehicle?

If the vehicle was sold prior to the offence date, supply the new registered owner/operator's full details on the statutory declaration provided. If you have not already done so, you should notify NSW Roads and Maritime Services or equivalent authority in your State or Territory of the date and to whom the vehicle was sold.

What if I want to dispute or seek leniency for a penalty?

Seek leniency based on certain circumstances or if you believe an error has been made. You can request a review at www.sdro.nsw.gov.au/review

Fact: Less than 4 per cent of penalties result in the recipient not needing to pay the penalty.

What if I want to have the penalty decided in court?

To have the matter determined by a court, complete and submit the court election form at www.sdro.nsw.gov.au/court. Please provide a residential address. The law does not permit SDRO to send a court attendance notice to a PO Box. SDRO is unable to consider any request for review upon receipt of a court election. Note: The court may apply additional costs.

Fact: Less than 1 per cent of penalties result in a not guilty verdict in court.

What if I want to pay now?

You can pay using the payment methods below, but this does not finalise the matter. It is an offence if you fail to name the driver responsible and further actions will be taken.
